DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1-4, 7 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by O’Groske et al. (US 5,735,707).

O’Groske et al. disclose a connector comprising:

a housing (20) having a concave portion (50);

a cable holding member (30) having a convex portion (34);

a rotation-restricting means which are two projections (50, 60) and two slots (62), one slot extending in one z-axis (Figure 2) and the other slot extending in second y-axis (Figure 3).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claims 5-6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over O’Groske et al. (US 5,735,707).

Art Unit: 2833

O’Groske et al. substantially disclose the claimed invention except for the slot being as a slit or a groove.

It would have been obvious matter of design choice to change the slot a slit or groove shape, since such a modification would have involved a mere change in the shape of a component. A change in shape is generally recognized as being within the level of ordinary skill in the art.

Allowable Subject Matter

5. Claim 8 is objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

6. The following is an examiner’s statement of reasons for allowance

The prior art of record fails to teach the first and second slots are connected to formed a continuous T-shaped slot.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled “Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance.”
